The Lessons

All sit as able.

First Reading

2 Samuel 23:1-7

Reader        A reading from the book of Samuel.

These are the last words of David:

The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel: The spirit of the Lord speaks through me, his word is upon my tongue. The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God, is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land. Is not my house like this with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire? But the godless are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be picked up with the hand; to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear. And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

Psalm 132:1-13

- 1        Lord, remember David, * and all the hardships he endured;
- 2        How he swore an oath to the Lord *
          and vowed a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:
- 3        "I will not come under the roof of my house," *
          nor climb up into my bed;
- 4        I will not allow my eyes to sleep, *
          nor let my eyelids slumber;
- 5        Until I find a place for the Lord, *
          a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob."
- 6        "The ark! We heard it was in Ephratah; *
          we found it in the fields of Jearim.
- 7        Let us go to God's dwelling place; *
          let us fall upon our knees before his footstool."
- 8        Arise, O Lord, into your resting-place, *
          you and the ark of your strength.
- 9        Let your priests be clothed with righteousness; *
          let your faithful people sing with joy.
- 10      For your servant David's sake, *
          do not turn away the face of your Anointed.

- 11 The Lord has sworn an oath to David; *
in truth, he will not break it:
- 12 "A son, the fruit of your body *
will I set upon your throne.
- 13 If your children keep my covenant and my testimonies that I shall teach them, *
their children will sit upon your throne for evermore."

Second Reading

Revelation 1:4b-8

Reader A reading from the book of Revelation.

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

The Holy Gospel

John 18:33-37

Celebrant     The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ
                  according to Mark.

People        Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

The Nicene Creed

All stand as able.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Blessing of Pledge Cards

prayer written by The Rt. Rev. Gregory Rickel

Celebrant Most Loving God, we place on this altar of love these pledges of our very lives. These little pieces of paper represent many things, our time, our gratefulness for this place called St. Mary's. They represent our dreams, our hopes, our vision of the future, our life together as a people committed to following you and sharing you with others. May our lives lived outside these walls reflect that vision. May our gifts, these and others, not be viewed as leverage with you, but rather as gifts of thankfulness for all that we have been given. We pray for the continuing mission of St. Mary's, St. Andrew's, and the Central Michigan Episcopal Covenant, that they may continue to be a place of comfort and guidance to all people and a place where all are welcome no matter who they are or where they are on their journey of faith. And now we ask your blessing on these cards, all they represent, and especially the pledge we have made to you through them and with our lives. Amen.

Offertory

The celebrant says the offertory sentence.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer D

BCP, pg. 372

All stand as able.

Celebrant     The Lord be with you.

People       And also with you.

Celebrant     Lift up your hearts.

People       We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant     Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People       It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant     It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we say,

All           Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel as able. Then the celebrant continues.

Celebrant     Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All           We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The celebrant continues.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

All           Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come,
          thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
          as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
          but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
          and the power, and the glory,
          for ever and ever. Amen.
