MORNING PRAYER, ENRICHING OUR WORSHIP

Opening Sentence

Officiant Shower, O heavens, from above, and let the skies rain down righteousness; let the earth open, that salvation may spring up, and let it cause righteousness to sprout up also. Isaiah 45:8

Lighting the Advent Wreath Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus, Hymnal, #66 v3

Confession and Absolution

Officiant Let us confess our sins to God.

All kneel as able. Silence may be kept.

All God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

All stand as able.

Officiant O God, let our mouth proclaim your praise.

People And your glory all the day long.

All Praise to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Invitatory Psalm: Psalm 67:1-5

All Our God and Savior now draws near: O come let us worship.

O God, be merciful to us and bless us, *
show us the light of your countenance and come to us.
Let your ways be known upon earth, *
your saving health among all nations.
Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
for you judge the peoples with equity
and guide all the nations upon earth.
Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.

The Psalm: Psalm 146:4-9

After the Psalm:

All Praise to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

First Reading

Isaiah 35:1-10

After the reading: Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
 People Thanks be to God.

Canticle C: The Song of Hannah, 1 Samuel 2:1-8

Said in unison

All My heart exults in you, O God; *
 my triumph song is lifted in you.
 My mouth derides my enemies, *
 for I rejoice in your salvation.
 There is none holy like you, *
 nor any rock to be compared to you, our God.
 Do not heap up prideful words or speak in arrogance; *
 Only God is knowing and weighs all actions.
 The bows of the mighty are broken, *
 but the weak are clothed in strength.
 Those once full now labor for bread, *
 those who hungered now are well fed.
 The childless woman has borne sevenfold, *
 while the mother of many is forlorn.
 God destroys and brings to life, casts down and raises up; *
 gives wealth or takes it away, humbles and dignifies.
 God raises the poor from the dust; *
 and lifts the needy from the ash heap
 To make them sit with the rulers *
 and inherit a place of honor.
 For the pillars of the earth are God's * on which the whole earth is founded.

Second Reading

James 5:7-10

After the reading: Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
 People Thanks be to God.

Canticle R: A Song of True Motherhood, Julian of Norwich

Said in unison

All God chose to be our mother in all things *
 and so made the foundation of his work,
 most humbly and most pure, in the Virgin's womb.
 God, the perfect wisdom of all, *
 arrayed himself in this humble place.
 Christ came in our poor flesh *
 to share a mother's care.
 Our mothers bear us for pain and for death; *
 our true mother, Jesus, bears us for joy and endless life.
 Christ carried us within him in love and travail, *
 until the full time of his passion.
 And when all was completed and he had carried us so for joy, *
 still all this could not satisfy the power of his wonderful love.
 All that we owe is redeemed in truly loving God, *
 for the love of Christ works in us;
 Christ is the one whom we love.

Third Reading

Matthew 11:2-11

After the reading: Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
 People Thanks be to God.

Reflection

The reflection may be a time of silence, a homily, or reading of a text.

The Apostles' Creed Said in unison, standing as able

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

The people stand or kneel as able while the officiant leads the prayers.

Officiant Hear our cry, O God.

People And listen to our prayer.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Lord's Prayer Said in unison

It is our tradition to gather in a circle to say the Lord's Prayer. You are welcome to either stand and join hands, or remain seated and we will encircle you.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The General Thanksgiving

Said in unison

BCP p. 101

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.
